VET LEADERS LUNCH

Over a delicious three-course meal, hear our guest speaker discuss the latest trends and developments in the tertiary education environment. Network and enjoy discussions with a range of VET professionals, and take inspiration and new ideas back to your workplace.

The VET Development Centre is pleased to have John Ross, Higher Education Journalist, The Australian, as the guest speaker. John will provide insights and an overview of the world of VET as it comes across his desk.

The presentation promises to be informative and there will be an opportunity to ask questions about the VET sector, the changes and the future implications particularly in an election year.

Lunch will include:

- Canapés and drinks on arrival
- Two course sit-down meal in a beautiful setting
- Opportunity to network with peers
- Opportunity to ask questions of the guest speaker

What past participants have enjoyed:

- Very interesting main speaker
- Guest speaker was an excellent presenter whose overview of the sector was very informative
- Fabulous venue! Excellent event!
