

Skills for Sustainability Excellence Framework

Headings taken from AQTF Excellence Criteria

Description of criteria adapted from AQTF Excellence Criteria

Elements relating to best practice in provision of skills for sustainability – have links to AQTF Excellence Criteria

Criterion 1. Leadership The RTO demonstrates a strategic focus on and commitment to developing skills for sustainability	Criterion 2. Learning and Assessment The RTO achieves high-quality learning and assessment outcomes that meet or exceed client, industry, government and community demands for skills for sustainability	Criterion 3. People Development The RTO maintains a workforce that is skilled and capable of delivering high-quality outcomes in skills for sustainability	Criterion 4. Relationship Management The RTO fosters alliances and partnerships that support the achievement of high-quality outcomes in skills for sustainability	Criterion 5. Integrated Information Management The RTO manages information to continuously improve its performance in the development of skills for sustainability
Element G1.1 Established strategic direction and planning in relation to skills for sustainability, and effective implementation of the plan Element G1.2 Demonstrated organisational commitment and culture of excellence in relation to skills for sustainability	Element G2.1 Use of planning, design and review processes to ensure training and assessment strategies are responsive to latest theory, research, technology and client needs relating to sustainability Element G2.2 Use of appropriate resources, equipment, pedagogy and delivery methods to foster the development of best practice skills for sustainability	Element G3.1 Use of effective workforce planning and recruitment strategies to develop and maintain capability in delivery of skills for sustainability Element G3.2 Ongoing development of staff knowledge and expertise in skills for sustainability best practice	Element G4.1 Clear understanding of client needs and expectations in relation to skills for sustainability Element G4.2 Creation and management of alliances and partnerships that contribute to best practice in the development of skills for sustainability	Element G5.1 Established systems for managing and sharing knowledge in relation to skills for sustainability Element G5.2 Setting and achievement of targets in relation to skills for sustainability, and collection and use of data to inform continuous improvement